"We have the law and the evidence on our side," says old Jere Black "but the other fellows have the court."

HENCEFORTH let no one presume to speak of the sovereign people of the United States. According to the decision of the radical majority of the Electoral commission, the people of the United States are simply subjects of returning board villains—the most infamous scoundrels this side of hell.

HERE is impudence from the Kansas City Times with a vengeance: "H. & St. Joe" "slush" to newspapers: St. Louis Republican, $505.50; St. Louis Globe-Democrat, $156.50; St. Louis Times, $285; St. Louis Dispatch, $300; Kansas City Times ($2,500). Ha, ha, ha! What are you going to do about it?"

THE famine in British India is increasing, with little prospect of relief. It is represented that five millions of people are threatened with starvation, and the government has already been compelled to supply hundreds of thousands with food.

Mr. O'Connor in closing his argument in the Florida case, claimed that Democrats presented the best legal title. That we have the moral right," continued the great advocate, "is the sentiment of all mankind. It will be the judgment of posterity. There lives not a man, so far as I know, upon the face of the earth who, having the faculty of blushing could look an honest man in the face, and assert that the Hayes electors were truly elected."

The Kansas City Times exults over the apparent fact, as developed by testimony thus far, that it received considerable more of the H. & St. Jo. slush than either of the St. Louis papers. The Times should bear in mind that the St. Louis papers have not testified yet, and should they do so, entirely a different state of facts might be made public.

DOUBTLESS most people in Missouri have heard of the distinguished Samuel C. Pomeroy, alias Old Pom, alias Old Beans, alias Old Subs'y, late United State Senator from Kansas, and who was accustomed to buying the legislature of that State as often as it became necessary, as easily as the stock trader would purchase a herd of swine. But never let the name of Pomeroy be spoken again in derision by any Missourian, until the State is purged of the foul stain cast upon it in the passage of the Hannibal & St. Jo. bond renewal bill, and the bribe givers and bribe takers connected with that disgraceful swindle are consigned to the eternal ignominy which they merit.

PRESIDENT Grant has ordered the District Attorney to dismiss the prosecution of Belknap, and the order has been obeyed. The pretext that there was not evidence enough to convict, is notoriously false. If it were true, why not let the case go to trial and give Belknap the benefit of an acquittal? It was because the evidence against him was overwhelming that the President interposed to save him from the ignominy of a conviction.

THE Chicago Times in its harsh cynical way, remarks that, "Resolutions have been passed by the Kansas Legislature thanking the Representatives and Senators of that State for voting against the compromise bill. About this time it would not probably be difficult to find a great many Democrats everywhere willing to thank all who voted against the infernal machine. While in the grateful mood, the Kans. Solons also thanked Grant for sending troops South to back up the scalawag returning boards and vote stealers of that section; but for some reason they forgot to thank God for sending a similar pest, the grasshoppers, to devastate Kansas. This omission is a singular piece of inconsistency."

Every member of the electoral commission took and subscribed to the following oath:

"I do solemnly swear that I will impartially examine and consider all questions submitted to the commission of which I am a member and a true judgment thereon agreeable to the Constitution and laws, so help me God."

A question submitted to the commission was: Who are the legally appointed electors from Florida? And without stopping to consider the authority of governor, legislature or court, but overriding the decisions of them all and setting at naught the expressed will of the people, a majority of the commission blindly endorses the returning board infamy regardless of the obligations of an oath. Every member of that commission who by his vote refused to examine into the legality of the returns from Florida and count the vote of the State as it was given by the qualified voters thereof, is a perjured partisan and hell is too good for him.

Ten Thousand More Heard From. Carver and the New York Books Wanted.

Friday Mr. Wm. Wilms, the auditor of the H. & St. Jo. R. R. was examined by the H. & St. Jo. Slush Investigating Committee. His evidence corroborated that of Col. Lamb, of the day before, in reference to certain individuals receiving money. It was also interesting in some other particulars. The system of book-keeping for the H. & St. Jo. is most mysterious and complicated. There seems to be two sets of books, one in New York and one in Hannibal, and in these are deftly concealed all the facts the committee are so earnestly laboring to uncover. The Hannibal books show up only what Col. Lamb paid, and the amounts so liberally distributed by the lavish hand of the princely Carver remain sealed up in the books at New York. If the committee can get Carver and his books before them, and if he will talk, there will then indeed be "music in the air."

Col. Lamb was recalled and stated briefly that he was paid $10,000 for his services during the "campaign" at the capital. Wm. Brown, of the book-keepers of the road, was sworn. His testimony was uninteresting, as he was not in his present position at the time of the passage of the bill, and consequently not familiar with the facts.

Yesterday's Funeral Herald says: The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Munson, wife of T. L. Munson, of Hannibal, took place in this city yesterday and was attended by a large number of friends. Mr. Munson, the bereaved husband, is the brother of N. D. Munson and P. B. Munson, of this city. In his severe affliction he has the sympathy of many friends in Quincy.

Harper's Monthly is marked by the same characteristics which gave it a circulation from the first with the better class of readers. It combines reading matter with illustrations in a way to make clear and vivid the facts presented. Pictures merely designed to catch the eye of the ignorant are never inserted.—Chicago Journal.

The Weekly is the only illustrated paper of the day that in its essential character is recognized as a national paper.—Brooklyn Eagle.

The leading articles in Harper's Weekly on political topics are models of high-toned discussion, and its pictorial illustrations are often corroborative of five arguments of no small force.—Examiner and Chronicle, N. Y.

The Weekly has to a still larger degree distanced all competitors as an illustrated newspaper. Its editorials are among the most able of their kind, and its other reading matter is at once learned, brilliant and amusing. Its illustrations are abundant and of rare excellence.—Christian Advocate, N. Y.
