

ST. LOUIS PALLADIUM

Vol. XX. No. 40.

ST. LOUIS, MO., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1904.

$2.00 Per Annum, Single Copy 6 cents.

BISHOP MACC

...and the one who Defends the Principles of the Republican Party.

CITY NEWS.

Notes and News Concerning Our People—Weekly Record of Social Events, Deaths, Marriages and Births—Written Especially for St. Louis Palladium.

Miss Jennie Scott, of Camden, Ark., is on a visit.

For RENT—Furnished rooms, 2733 Madison street. MRS. STREET.

Winter garden of Hugh B. White, open from 4 to 7 p. m.

Dr. King's Headache Powders give instant relief. 2601 Lawton avenue.

Miss Nellie McWilliams has been ill, but is now convalescent.

Miss H. C., you will get your dates if you don't keep close watch.

Mrs. C. C. Carraway, of Laclede, O., presented her husband with a bougainvillee.

Mr. Wiley Price, of Memphis, may be a newly married man if Miss Penline will say so.

Messrs. Wright and Bolen are to open a new drug store at 2333 Market street shortly.

Mr. Albert Williams, of Tucson, Ariz., is O. K. We met him at Hugh B. White's winter garden.

Miss Stella Newton, of Chanute, Kas., spent a few days in the city visiting the World's fair.

Wonder why Miss Margaret White is wearing black? Say, Margaret, can't you and H. C. make up?

Mr. James H. Harrison, after a pleasant trip as a delegate to Richmond, Va., returned to his post Monday.

Mr. John Beaddy has just returned to the city after a very pleasant visit to his home in Fort Scott, Kas.

Miss Nannie Jones, of Henderson, Mo., spent a week at home. She is on the city en route to Marshall.

Miss Clara Parker, of New Orleans, one of the Crescent City's most prominent school teachers, is here visiting.

Miss Stanley P. Mitchell, the orator of the Liberty party, was in the city. He is going to see the president, Hon. George Taylor and get open their campaign.

Chief manager of the winter garden at 1911 Market street, is wide open to the interest of their patrons. A clever fellow and will loan any umbrella when it is raining. SNOOKS

Messrs. Wright and Bolen have opened a drug store at 2333 Market street. Two gentlemen thoroughly up to the drug business. They are graduates of Howard university, of Washington, D. C. They are polished gentlemen, and ask the patronage of the public. They were formerly with Harris & Mosby drug store.

Mrs. Angelina Adams attended service at Antioch, Sunday, the 11th. Come again.

Mrs. David Wilson, Jr., of Junction, Ill., is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. M. M. Stokes.

Don't fail to attend the musicians' annual sermon at St. Paul's chapel, Sunday, September 18.

The waiters furnished at the World's Fair were secured by Hugh B. White, 1911 Market street, last Thursday.

Who is Mr. Frank Lewis, from the Hot Sulphur bath house, San Antonio, Tex., who will have direct management?

A. W. Washington, of 2011A Walnut street, has been sick with the hay fever for four weeks, and is not very much better.

Mrs. J. Abdel-Kader, of Pensacola, Fla., a teacher in the public schools, is visiting friends in St. Louis. She leaves soon for her home.

Rev. Lewis Lane has improved to the extent that he expects to attend services at his church next Sunday. He has been ill since August 26.

We will soon picture out that Negro democratic club called the Kickers, composed of Jones, Eugene Davis and a few more misguided fellows.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Havis and family, of Pine Bluff, Ark., are in the city visiting the fair, and are the guests of Mrs. James Cole, 3357 Finney avenue.

Dr. J. W. Hunter and family are here from Lexington, Ky., visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Russell, of 2735 Mills street. They will remain for several days.

G. W. Gaines, national grand master of the U. B. F., was entertained by Mrs. O'Dell, of 2710 Lawton avenue, and also by the past grand secretary of order.

The St. Louis Palladium has proven to be the best all-around Negro Republican paper in the country doing the state campaign of Missouri.—The Southern Sentinel.

Mrs. Cornelia Jones, 4361 Cottage avenue, is entertaining her mother and sister, Mrs. Dianor Lewis and Mrs. Lavenia Taylor, of Marshall, Mo. The ladies will take in the fair while here.

Mrs. Eliza Fletcher, Miss Leona Wallace and Mr. John Bell, of Lexington, Ky., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Russell, of 2735 Mills street. They have visited the fair several times, and yet they go again.

It is time for the Pleasant Workers' club to give an entertainment of some kind. I would suggest a nice little concert at Sexton's garden, 2605 Lawton avenue. How about that, Madame President, Mrs. M. A. Gilree?

World's fair visitors at Mrs. J. M. M. Stokes', 2612 Morgan street: George W. Saffell, Jr., Lawrenceburg, Ky.; Mrs. Walker Wood, Warrensburg, Mo.; Mrs. Alice Taylor, Warrensburg, Mo.; Miss Zelella Taylor, Warrensburg, Mo.; Mr. Robert Cooper, Warrensburg, Mo.; Mr. Bert Patrick, Aurora, Neb.

Let every Negro in America go to the World's fair. One thousand each day ought to go.

Mrs. Annie O. Conner, of Paducah, Ky., will soon visit her sister, Mrs. M. Davis, of 4035 Evans avenue.

Mrs. Mary Hyett, of 1026 Lucky street, has been sick for several days. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Mrs. Martha Diggs, of 2822 Papin street, has been quite sick for the past week. She is a little better at this present writing.

Mrs. Fannie Newcomb, of 3303 Hickory street, has removed to 2714 Mills street. Her mother, Mrs. Richardson, is still very ill.

Mrs. Laura Wheeler, of 3001 Manchester avenue, will soon take a trip through the western states. We wish her a pleasant trip.

Mr. P. L. Mingo, of Lexington, Miss., is principal of one of our public schools in that city. He is a man of excellent ability, a cultured gentleman who is a credit to his race.

Mrs. C. L. Bradley, of Topeka, Kas., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Cooper, of 22 Johnson street. Mrs. Cooper is a delightful entertainer. Her niece will remain several days.

Mrs. Sallie Rucks, of 2818A Morgan street, paid up for the Palladium until February 28, 1905. We gave her an historical picture of John Brown. Well, who will be the next?

Rev. R. C. Cole has gone south to attend the National Baptist association, convened in Austin, Tex., last Wednesday. Rev. Cole, stands at the head of the Baptists in the west.

Miss Henrietta Cogswell, of 127 Lucas avenue, and Mr. W. H. White, of Cincinnati, O., will be united in the bonds of holy matrimony, September 21. We wish them well.

Several hundred Negroes have returned to St. Louis who have been working in the different packing houses. The strikers lost, and are now going back for less wages.

Mrs. Mary Dobbins, of 2622 Stoddard street, left last Monday night for a short visit to her brothers and many friends in Mississippi. We wish her a pleasant visit and safe return.

A barbecue will be given by the combined Colored Musicians' union, local 44, A. P. of M., Monday evening, September 19, at Hoch's grove. Come out, all lovers of music, and witness a grand treat.

Mr. Hart, president of the bank in Jacksonville, Fla., was delighted with the fair while visiting here. He also spent many pleasant hours with Mrs. Dobbins and niece. He left for his home last Wednesday.

Misses Mamie and Ethel Fowler and their brother, Clarence, have been spending several weeks in St. Louis. While visiting the fair they stopped at 3116 Rutger street. After a delightful visit, they left for their home last Tuesday.

Miss Ethel Marshall, of 2305 North Sarah street, was married to Mr. Joseph Neally, of 4264 St. Ferdinand avenue. They start out on life's sea with a bright future, and we trust twenty years from now it will be the same honeymoon.

Mrs. Lulu Daniel left the city at 8 o'clock, Monday morning, for Chicago, Ill., where she will remain until about December 1. Shortly before her departure she entertained Mesdames Oakley, Mary Grant, Hunter and Rucks at her residence, 1620 Gay street.

Mrs. L. Green, the sister of Mrs. Laura Wheeler, of 3004 Manchester avenue, and her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, are visiting Mrs. Wheeler at home. They came to enjoy the fair. We hope they will carry pleasant remembrances with them to their home in Danville, Mo.

We had the pleasure of meeting Miss Alice Reimey, of 1611 Morgan street. This young lady is spoken of as being loved by all who know her. Her father, mother and brother think she is not to be equalled. We are more than pleased to speak of such an estimable young lady.

Miss Bessie Morgan, of 1615 Morgan street, who formerly taught school in Murphysboro, Ill., was married two weeks ago to Mr. J. S. Lane, Jr., the barber. Mr. Lane's father lives at 1323 Wash street. We wish them well and hope for still better things. We are acquainted with both father and son, as they are old citizens of St. Louis.

Mrs. Clark's Sad Visit to Canton, Miss.

Dear Editor—Please allow me space in the columns of your worthy paper for a few words relative to my trip to Canton, Miss. With the remains of Robert Jones, who died at my home August 19, I left for his home, and arrived there the next evening at 4 p. m. The funeral was held Sunday, at 3 o'clock at Mt. Zion Baptist church. The last sad rites were preached by the pastor, R. O. Sims. His death was a surprise to his many friends who saw him at home well and hearty last Christmas. He left a mother, two sisters and a brother to mourn his death. Being a stranger in Canton, I shall never forget the hospitality shown me during my short stay. I must tell the Colored people that Canton, Miss., is a very progressive little city for our race. The majority of the Colored people are in business, own their own homes, and their watchword is "Onward." I hope to make another visit to Canton.

MRS. V. J. CLARK.

Order of Services

For Lane's Tabernacle C. M. E. church, 2436 Fairfax Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

Sunday Services—9:30, Sunday School; 11 a. m., preaching; 8 p. m. preaching. First and Third Sunday—At 6:00 p. m., Epworth League. Second and fourth Sunday—At 6:00 p. m., woman missionary meeting.

Weekly Services—Monday night, Board meeting; Wednesday, 8 p. m., prayer meeting; Tuesday evening, Sewing Circle; Friday night, class meeting.

REV. O. B. HEAVLOW, Pastor. Residence, 3996 Fairfax Ave.

Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.

The national grand lodge of the Odd Fellows that will meet in Columbus, O., October 4, will have the following named gentlemen as representatives from St. Louis: W. C. Gordan, Frank Boyd, D. E. Wells, Elias Butler, W. T. Wilder, Augustus Turner, George W. ... D. W. Holland, W. L. Cox, Blakey Hatchison, Jero Prophet, A. Russell, R. D. Brown, Moses Rodgers, Edward T. Brown, W. B. Hart, Webster Davis, Charles A. Smith, Augustus Phoenix, Joshua Nicholls, Will Allen, W. R. Ming.

Prof. DuBois at Last.

Prof. W. E. B. Du Bois, having entirely recovered his health during his vacation, will deliver his famous lecture, "The Development of a People," at Douglass hall, Beaumont street and Lawton avenue, Monday evening, October 3.

Prof. Du Bois, who comes here under the auspices of the Lyceum Sketch club, is acknowledged to be the foremost writer and lecturer of the race in America.

His new lecture, "The Development of a People," is said to be the most powerful and exhaustive interpretation of the race problem ever presented.

At the conclusion of the lecture, Prof. Du Bois will hold an informal reception, after which the floor will be given over to dancing, for the first time since the hall was closed for the summer season.

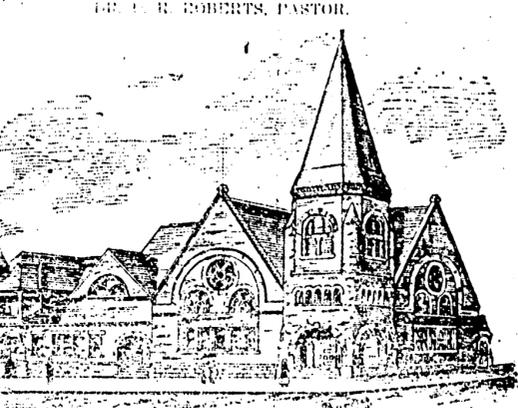

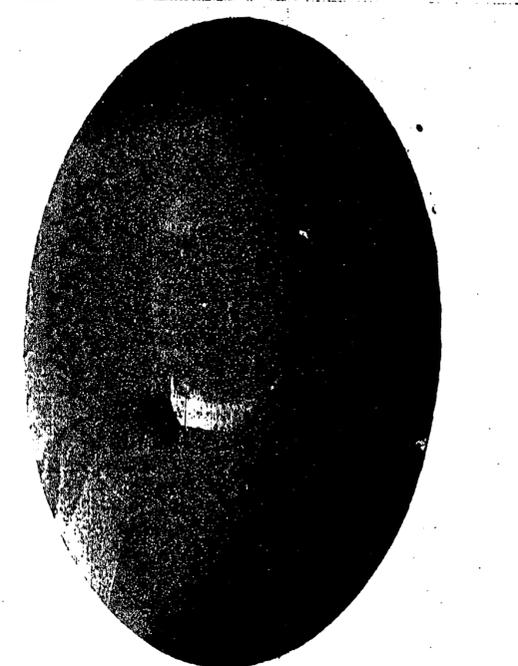

A SURE THING.

"Did you take in the Louisiana Purchase exposition?"

"Well," replied the man, jingling three pennies and a souvenir medal, "I doubt if the exposition was taken in."

WILL MEET OCT. 5.

The Missouri conference will meet on October 5, at Poplar Bluff, Mo. It is expected that every minister in active service will be present.

St. Paul's Chapel, Twenty-Eighth and Lawton Avenue.

A Loving Daughter.

Miss Hattie Mae Ingram, of Dallas, Tex., has been visiting her father, Mr. Ingram, of 2213 Market street. Miss Ingram is an accomplished young lady who has been appointed a teacher in the public school of Dallas. She returned home last Tuesday. Her father is a well-preserved man, and looks to be about thirty years of age, but, like all proud fathers, he thinks he has the only daughter. We wish him well and his daughter much success in her school room.

A GRAND EDITION.

September 17 will be six years as a weekly paper and fourteen years as a monthly paper, 20 years in all. On the 21st of this month we will issue a special edition. Will you help us and let us have your cut.

Will Soon Be One.

Miss Lizzie Anderson, of 1411 South Cardinal avenue, and Mr. James Crayens will be married on the 26th of this month. Our heartiest wishes for their happiness through life's journey.

FOR RENT.

Three fine unfurnished rooms, Bath and water license free. Apply at 1512 Papin street, or to Jas. W. Grant, 519 Pine street.

The Palladium Is An Owl.

We regret that some Negroes coming to the city from the south are living in places they do not wish their acquaintances to know of. We wish to say that rent is so high, all persons can not be accommodated as they would like to be, so don't be afraid. If the Palladium man sees a new-comer in town he will put it in the Palladium. If you are so high-toned that you do not wish your fellow-students of the different schools in which you were educated to know of your whereabouts, you had better ask the Palladium man to please keep quiet on that point. SNOOKS.

Annual Sermon.

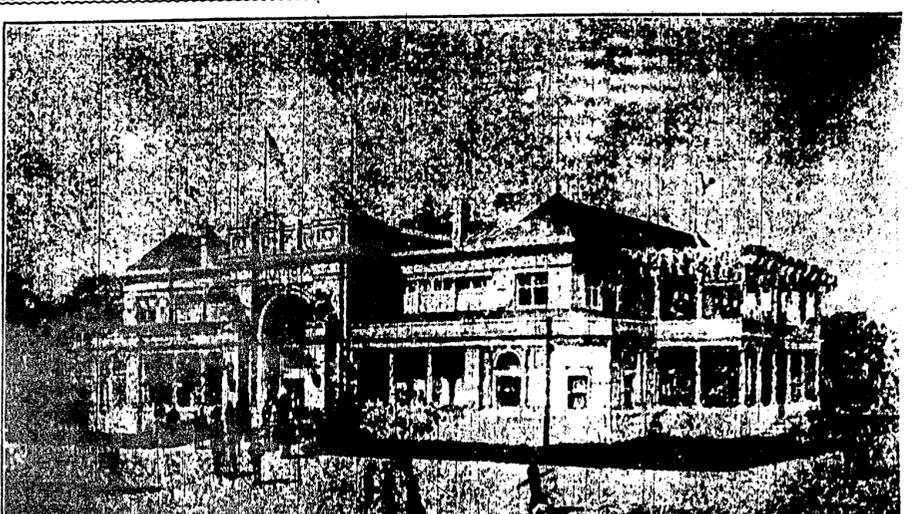

The musicians' union will have their annual sermon preached at St. Paul's chapel, Sunday, September 18. All musicians of the city are expected to be present to give God the praise for His blessings.

Notice.

John W. Wheeler, Jr., is again an active worker for the Palladium. All contracts made by him are O. K. So help this young man and you help yourself.

The man who has $20 in a bank is a capitalist, the same as he who has $20,000, the only difference being that the $20,000 man has more money.

FOR RENT—Nicely-furnished rooms at 1809 Lucas avenue.

KAN SAS STATE BUILDING AT THE FAIR.

(Continued on Last Page.)